50X1-HUM

1. In July 1953, the State Planning Commission ordered the closing of the Central Medical Depot of the (Zentraler Sanitaetspark) of the Volkspolizei in Prossen near Bad Schandau. The order was allegedly given as a result of the "new line" of the East German government. As of late August 1953, the medical depot was in the process of winding up its affairs. The bulk of its equipment and material was being moved to the Central Medical Depot of the Volkspolizei in Mittenwalde near Berlin. The remainder was to be distributed among the district depots of the Volkspolizei.
2. The following are known Volkspolizei district depots:
 - a. Dresden, Schillerstrasse
 - b. Weimar, Tieffurterstrasse 16
 - c. Halle
 - d. Neubrandenburg
